FAMDENT Show Mumbai 2024 Gears Up to Ignite Innovation and Collaboration in Indian Dentistry at Bombay Exhibition Center

3-day trade show will host 150+ leading manufacturers of dental tools, materials and equipment in Mumbai along with a comprehensive conference programme

India – June 2024: The 18th edition of the FAMDENT Show Mumbai, India's premier trade show and conference for the clinical dentistry community, is poised to set a new standard for excellence. Scheduled for June 21 to June 23 at the Bombay Exhibition Centre, Mumbai, the event promises a dynamic platform for dentists, industry leaders, and academics to connect, learn and drive the future of dental care in India.

A Mega Trade Show for All Things Dental

Over 150 prominent dental brands, including manufacturers, dealers, distributors, traders and stockists, will showcase 1000+ cutting-edge dental materials, equipment, technologies and solutions. In addition to exhibitors from all across India, the exhibition also features international participation from Korea and Lithuania. Attendees will get the opportunity to explore a comprehensive range of products, including dental units, lighting systems, suction systems, practice furniture, dental laboratory equipment, materials for inlays, crown & bridges, denture materials, sterilization/disinfectant devices, auxiliaries and more. Visitors from India as well as other parts of the world including Japan, Russia, Sri Lanka, UAE, Bangladesh among others will be attending the event.

Knowledge Powerhouse: Conference and Hands-On Workshops

Alongside the expo, a 3-day scientific conference featuring over 30 renowned dental experts will equip attendees with the latest clinical knowledge and best practices. More than 1000 delegates are expected to attend the conference, including a special session hosted by Dr. Sandesh Mayekar, Dr. A. Kumarswamy & Dr. Ajit Shetty – a combined 100 years of clinical experience shared on "The Right and the Not So Right...". The conference also offers Continuing Dental Education (CDE) points to its attendees, bridging the gap between the industry and academia. The show will also feature 8 highly engaging hands-on workshops with live demonstrations and practical learning opportunities.

Platform for Innovation and Recognition

Students, doctors and academicians will showcase their expertise at the engaging paper presentations and e-Poster competitions. The participant abstracts will be judged by an expert panel and the winners of the competitions will be felicitated at the show across Gold, Silver and Bronze categories.

FAMDENT Show Mumbai is the perfect platform for participating brands looking to launch new products and activate engagement through exciting booth events.

"The FAMDENT Show Mumbai is a cornerstone event for the Indian dental community. It fosters innovation, collaboration, and knowledge exchange, ultimately leading to improved patient care and a healthier future for everyone. We are excited to welcome attendees from India and abroad to this dynamic event", says Ajay Kumar Gulati, General Manager – Messe Düsseldorf India.

The show sees the participation of renowned partners as well, such as Colgate (Principal Partner), OneNation (Scrub Partner), Futuredent (Conference Partner) and Dentist Channel Online (Media Partner).

Attended by dentists, dental professionals, dental hygienists, pharmacists, dental traders, distributors, academicians, dental technicians and dental associations, FAMDENT Show Mumbai is well placed to shape the future of dental industry in India.
