FAMDENT Mumbai 2025: Driving Dental Innovation and Industry Growth in India

Mumbai, India – FAMDENT Show Mumbai 2025, India's leading dental trade fair, returns for its 19th edition from June 20-22, 2025, at Hall 4, Bombay Exhibition Center, Goregaon (E), Mumbai. Organised by Messe Düsseldorf India, this highly anticipated event will unite the entire dental community, showcasing cutting-edge advancements and fostering unparalleled business opportunities.

FAMDENT Mumbai 2025 will feature an expansive exhibition floor with over 150 exhibiting companies presenting more than 1000 dental products, tools, equipment and ancillaries. India's leading dental brands will be strongly represented by manufacturers, dealers, distributors and traders, alongside significant international participation from exhibitors from Korea. Attendees can expect to see new product introductions and vibrant activation events at various booths.

The comprehensive showcase will include dental units, lighting systems, suction, practice furniture, visual systems, chairs, functional equipment & systems for dental laboratories, sterilization, disinfectant devices, chemical disinfectants, professional and protective clothing, servicing systems, imaging & photography systems, oral hygiene products as well as equipment for restorative & endodontic, prosthodontic, surgical, anaesthetic & cosmetic dentistry, periodontics & pedodontics.

Beyond the extensive expo, the show's Scientific Conference will host well-known and seasoned dentists from all over the country as speakers, providing invaluable insights into current and future trends. In addition to that, a major highlight includes a session by Dr. Maurizio De Francesco from Italy, who will speak on 'The Maintenance of Peri-implant volume: from simple case to complex case'. Delegates attending the Scientific Conference will also be granted 18 CDE (Continuing Dental Education) Points by the Maharashtra State Dental Council (MSDC).

Adding to the immersive experience are innovative and one-of-a-kind Hands-On Workshops, offering practical sessions, live demonstrations and free goods for participants, providing direct learning and skill enhancement.

Dental students, physicians and academicians will also have a unique opportunity to present best practices and innovative approaches through paper presentations and e-poster competitions. The winning papers and posters will be felicitated with Gold, Silver and Bronze awards.

The robust campaigns ensure wide visibility and attendance from key visitor profiles including dentists, dental hygienists, dental technicians, dental assistants, clinic and practice owners and other dental professionals, as well as dental traders & distributors, associations, academicians, pharmacists, research and scientific institutions, orthodontists, prosthetics and maxillofacial surgeons.

Ajay Gulati, General Manager – Messe Düsseldorf India remarks, "FAMDENT Mumbai 2025 is more than just an exhibition; it's a vital platform for education, innovation and collaboration within the dental community. We are excited to bring together leading experts, cutting-edge technology and diverse professionals under one roof to drive the future of dentistry in India and beyond."

FAMDENT Mumbai 2025 is organised in partnership with industry leaders, including Colgate-Palmolive (India) Limited as the Principal Partner, STGC Uniformity Private Limited – OneNation as the Scrub Partner, Futuredent as the Conference Partner and Dentist Channel Online as the Media Partner.

This edition promises to be an indispensable event for anyone involved in the dental industry, offering unparalleled opportunities for learning, sourcing and networking.
